

SELAH - JOSH

Words by Joshua Kpozehouen

So we're going to do a song,
I am sure you guys know it.
But what I really love about this song Pride Of A Father, it's something that's really special to me. 'Cause the whole thing with this song is knowing that when God sees us He doesn't see our shame, He doesn't see our iniquities. He sees us for us, and He sees our heart and it's the most beautiful thing.

It's the most beautiful thing and I just feel like there's young people that are coming today and maybe there is regret and shame and things that just kind of, you know, make you feel unworthy.

But the beautiful thing is that when we come into the presence of God, when we come into the presence of God the weight is lifted.

And that He sees our heart. He sees us through the light of His son. He washes us in forgiveness and mercy. So, I just want to speak that over you guys and just pray that this song ministers to you from that point and that you can connect to the presence of God. Does that sound good?
