WEEK 06

WEEKLY READING
JAMES 4:1-13

SHORT SUMMARY

Made to Mature emphasizes the importance of spiritual growth and maturity as Christians. It explores the biblical meaning of maturity, referencing the Greek term “teleios,” which signifies completeness and wholeness, and highlights that maturity is a continuous journey that begins when we become Christians. The sermon outlines three ways we mature: through practice, patience, and perseverance - encouraging believers to actively engage in their faith to cultivate a deeper relationship with God as we navigate each season of life.

PRAYER

Heavenly Father, we thank You for Your word that guides us in our journey of faith. Help us to embrace the process of maturing, to practice Your teachings, to be patient in our waiting, and to persevere through challenges. May we seek you wholeheartedly and grow into the fullness of Christlikeness. Strengthen us with Your Spirit as we pursue maturity each day. In Jesus’ name, we pray. Amen.
