Prior to moving to South Africa, they led the youth and young adult's ministry of Hillsong Church Australia for 12 years. Phil was also very involved, in those early years, in the development of the Hillsong United worship music ministry.

Together they are committed to lifting the lives of people through the message of the good news of Jesus.

Phil believes that everyone has a unique God-given purpose, therefore everyone is valuable and can make a difference in the life of someone. He is passionate about leadership, and committed to living a life of personal health, growth, and development. Phil loves to celebrate others as they grow and develop into all God has for them.

Lucinda's passion for Jesus is contagious. She is inspiring as a wife, mom, leader, communicator, and church builder. Lucinda is passionate about placing value on women, uplifting their lives and seeing them fulfill their potential.
